MY STORY BEGINNING

The silence was deafening knowing that something was coming and it was coming fast but little did they know that this would change their lives forever . . .

Impatiently, Katie and Lily (two best friends) were waiting in the cold black night for some sort of transport. Earlier that day, Lily and Katie received a letter with a weird looking crest on it inviting them to a free experience of an escape room and would be picked up at midnight on Friday which was today! Minutes past feeling like hours. Just when they were about to go inside, the sound of horses hooves tapped along the ground. In an instant, a luxurious carriage fit for royalty pulled by four diamond white enchanted horses galloped down the moon lit street. The carriage which was whiter than the snow in winter had with beautiful golden embroidery.

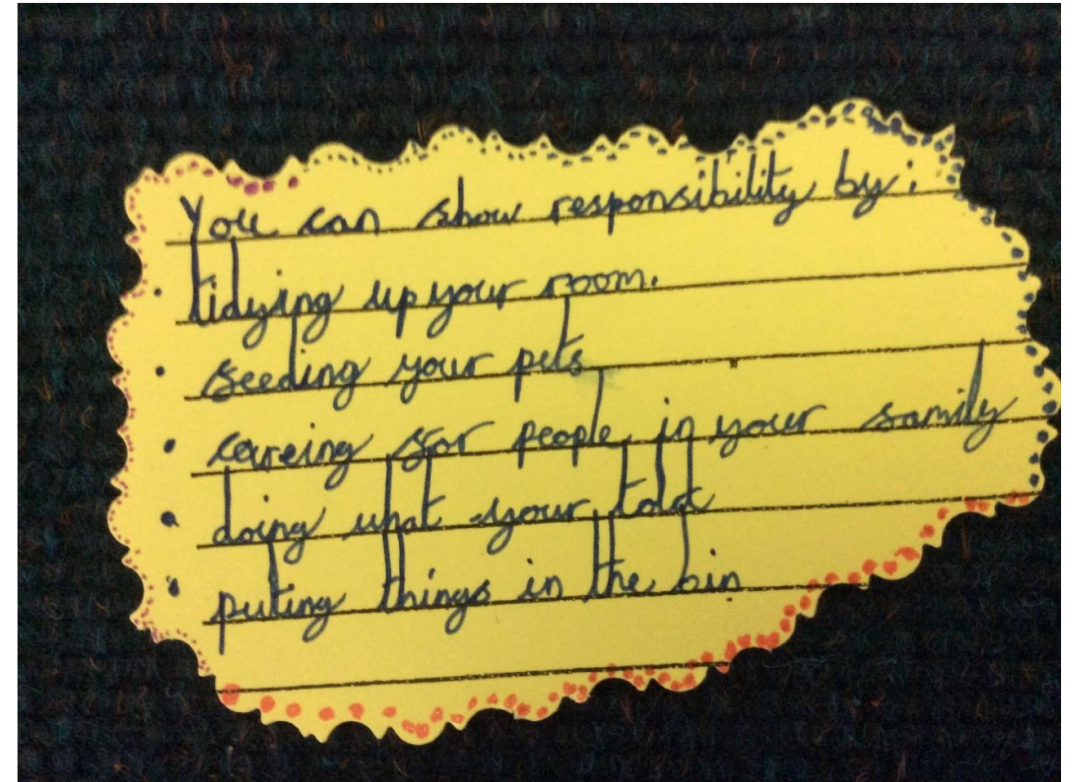

Although the moon was shining bright, the graceful stallions illuminated the night. It's unusual but is a very classy and unique way to travel. Through the crystal clear windows, they could see velvet seating that was blood red. Sweet smelling aromas filled the air. Both of their jaws were dropped. Lily started to speak, breaking the silence. "Shouldn't we get inside ?" Asked Lily.
