2. Never speak to strangers

3. Never argue

4. Never send photos.

5. Don't read false info you can see by asking an adult or if you know about it report it because it might scam you.

6. Potential employers or customers don't need to know your personal relationship status or your home address.

You wouldn't choose to walk through a dangerous neighborhood—don't visit dangerous neighborhoods online.

8. Marketers love to know all about you, and so do hackers. Both can learn a lot from your browsing and social media usage.

9. Passwords are one of the biggest weak spots in the whole Internet security structure, but there's currently no way around them.

10. Any time you make a purchase online, you need to provide credit card or bank account information—just what cybercriminals are most eager to get their hands on.
